About Annette

Is your group looking for a speaker? Annette brings the room to life through her experiential presentations as she transforms the energy of the space and opens the audience to the awareness of energy within and around them.

Annette Rugolo, Master Diamond Dowser, has been transforming people’s homes since 2006. Her clear, fresh and informative approach to this information will help you understand the powerful impact the energy of your home has on your life ... both positively and negatively. She will help you see your home from an energetic point of view and you will understand the experiences you and your family have in your home.

Through her experience as a dowser, she has also learned to communicate with and help release earthbound souls and she is passionate about helping others move from fear to compassion for our earthbound brothers and sisters.

She has also connected with a large number of children over the years who have helped her understand who they are and what their purpose is on this planet. Her talk, ‘Enlightened at Birth’ helps parents see their child with new eyes.

Speaking Topics Include

Testimonials

“Annette is a very inspirational presenter who speaks from her heart and shares her insights with grace, ease and calm. She’s a wonderful speaker whose knowledge and expertise shines through her gentle style. Annette holds space and connects to her audience in a very special way. She’s a true bright light and I enjoyed her presentation so much that I jumped in head first and signed up for classes.” Jill Goux — www.JoyfulLivingStudios.com

“Thank you for that fantastic presentation on using color as a healing tool. I loved your personal stories of real situations that you shared. You are a compelling speaker and have intrigued me enough that I plan on taking your next color workshop, with the intention of incorporating this knowledge into my business. You truly are an expert on the topic and I can’t wait to learn more from you!” Karen Larkin — Interior Designer & Feng Shui Consultant
